Death of Little Aleatha Marks Shaw.

Died on Sunday near Enfield August 26 of spinal meningitis, Aleatha Marks, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaw, aged 2 years 1 month and 20 days.

She had been in perfect health a good while. On Saturday before her death she was taken sick and on Sunday there was a change for the worse and in a few hours there was a decided one. We saw that medical aid nor loving hands could not lengthen the life of little Aleatha.

She was a very affectionate and unusually bright child. She was buried in Scotland Neck Baptist cemetery on Monday afternoon. Rev. J. E. Holden, of Scotland Neck, spoke very touchingly of the life and death of one so pure, that knew not of the sting of sin.

The little chair she loved so well is vacant. No more will we hear her sing the little songs she sang so sweetly, but weep not bereaved ones, she is singing songs of gladness around the throne of God where sorrow and sickness can never darken the brightness of her joy.

Look to Him that doeth all things well and say, "Thy will be done." Arms empty of our child, we lift, With spirit unbroken, God will not take back His gifts, Our child is ours in Heaven.

Letter to N. B. Josey.

Dear Sir: How did you get your business? We'll tell you how we got ours. You sell shoes, we make paint; perhaps we can do a good turn to ourselves, you and we, by swapping experiences.

We began 152 years ago in a little shop a few minutes walk from where we are now; a great many things have happened, we don't remember them all. We made a good paint as we could and learned to make better. We are the oldest now; we don't know whether we had any teacher or not; it's so long ago; if we had, he's gone and forgotten. We should have been forgotten if we hadn't made good paint and friends.

You buy your shoes; you have an advantage in that; if you make a mistake, you can stop it quick. We've had to go slow; it's hard to pick out one's own mistakes, and nothing but fun to correct the mistakes of others.

You know where to go for leather that keeps its shape, feels good, looks new, and wears a long time. What a comfort it is to be comfortable for making one's customers comfortable!

We also have a unique advantage—unique, you know, means that nobody else has anything like it. We make a strong paint that takes less gallons, saves half the cost of painting your house, and it's like that leather of yours for wear. It is all paint and the strongest of paint. Paint is usually adulterated and weak.

We're very old, but we make young paint! One gallon is better than two, if it has the stuff in it.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO., New York.

P. S. E. T. Whitehead & Co. sells our paint.

Mau-Zan relieves instantly the pain caused by those blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. In Honor of The Baraca Class.

Reported for The Commonwealth. The final and one of the most pleasant social events of the summer season was the reception tendered on Friday evening to the young men of the Baraca Class of the Scotland Neck Baptist church and their friends, by Prof. and Mrs. C. W. Wilson.

The guests were welcomed by Miss Pauline Tully and Mr. Chas. J. Shields, after which they were received and introduced to the host and hostess by Miss Uedine Futrell and Mr. Allan Perry, and after meeting with a warm and cordial welcome from Prof. and Mrs. Wilson, each was presented with a memento suitable to the occasion and proceeded into the spacious reception halls where the assembled party was entertained with instrumental and vocal solos by Misses Elizabeth and Katherine Futrell and Miss Emily Biggs in their delightful and accomplished manner. After this flow of music and feast of soul, refreshments, served by Richmond's well known caterer, were dispensed by three charming young ladies, Misses Louise Futrell, Cornelia Josey and Olivia Lawrence, who, in their graceful way, made each and every one feel glad to be there. And as the hour for parting came, all were eager to render to Prof. and Mrs. Wilson full praise for the delightful manner in which they were entertained.

The Baraca Class, separately and individually, express to their teacher sincere appreciation for his splendid effort in their behalf.

Graded School Opened Well.

The graded school opened well Monday, there being about 245 pupils present. All the teachers are in place. The new teachers are Miss Nannie C. Leach, of McCullers, and Miss Annie Baker, of Palmyra, and they both have entered upon their work with good interest and have made a fine impression. Miss Leach is teacher for the seventh grade and Miss Baker is teacher for the second grade.

Superintendent Wilson is pleased at the prospects of the school for the coming year.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet Thursday afternoon, September 6th, at 5 o'clock at the Graded School. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.
